

The Universal Office

Get Connected to Life

The Universal Office is an individually programmable "Virtual Office" that gives you a unique "digital identity" (your Genie Number). This Genie Number is your passport into an entire suite of services combining three powerful technologies; Telecommunications, the Internet, and; Electronic Banking, into a single telephone number for all your communications, helping you to manage your business and life.

The Universal Office delivers your messages to you on the move - by phone, e-mail, pager, fax or cell phone. You can log onto any Internet enabled computer and access your messages. Read or listen to your messages from an Internet cafe, hotel, library or airport worldwide.
